VORWORT

Mit der nun endlich erfolgenden Publikation des Registers zu den bisher erschienenen Bänden der Altindischen Grammatik möchte ich ein Versprechen einlösen, das ich ehemals meinem hochverehrten und viel zu früh dahingeschiedenen Lehrer, Herrn Prof. Dr. Albert Debrunner, gegeben habe. Ich darf bekennen, daß die Verzettelung und die Niederschrift des riesigen Materials eine recht mühevoll und zeitraubende Aufgabe gewesen ist, deren Abschluß durch andere Arbeiten und mancherlei widrige Umstände sich leider immer wieder hinausgezögert hat.

Um den Umfang dieses Bandes so knapp wie nur möglich zu halten, habe ich — in Vereinbarung mit A. Debrunner — auf die Anlage eines Sachverzeichnisses verzichtet, ebenso auf ein Register zum mittel- und neuhindischen Wortbestand wie auch auf ein solches zu den nichtindischen indogermanischen und zu den außerindogermanischen Sprachen¹⁾. Man mag und wird das bedauern, andernfalls aber wäre das Ganze unendlich angeschwollen. Das ehemals von mir für Bd. III angefertigte und nur drei Seiten umfassende 'Register der Stämme und Wörter', das nur als Notbehelf gedacht war, ist nunmehr überholt: der ganze Band ist hier abermals und ausführlicher erfaßt worden.

Um für das Auge des Benutzers das Schriftbild möglichst einfach und übersichtlich zu gestalten, habe ich für die einzelnen Bände, die 'Nachträge' und die neue 'Einleitung' Siglen eingesetzt, die sich m. E. leicht einprägen. Es bedeuten:

- ig = Introduction générale
- a = Bd. I
- aa = Nachträge zu Bd. I
- b = Bd. II, 1
- bb = Nachträge zu Bd. II, 1
- c = Bd. II, 2
- d = Bd. III

In dieser Reihenfolge ist das Material angeordnet, wobei ich hoffe, nichts Wesentliches übersehen zu haben. Nicht mehr berücksichtigt ist Wackernagels Einleitung, deren Seitenzahlen aber von Renou in seiner Neubearbeitung angegeben sind. Der noch ausstehende vierte Band wird ein eigenes Register erhalten müssen.

Aus Gründen der Raumersparnis sind — ebenfalls nach Absprache mit A. Debrunner — nur die Seitenzahlen angeführt und ist auf Angabe der Paragraphen verzichtet worden. Es ist jedoch durchaus möglich, daß ein und dasselbe Wort auf der gleichen Seite zwei- oder mehrmal erscheint: im Register ist das nicht besonders vermerkt worden; ich bitte also den Benutzer, jeweils die ganze Seite zu überprüfen.

Akzente habe ich i. a. nicht gesetzt, nur gelegentlich sind sie zum Zwecke der Differenzierung angegeben. Der Ansatz der Wortstämme ist in den einzelnen Bänden nicht einheitlich; ich habe die Form in den ersten beiden Bänden, die mit der Gebrauchsweise der Petersburger Wörterbücher übereinstimmt, festgehalten und schreibe darum z. B. svairin- (mit -n-, ähnlich auch wieder in den 'Nachträgen'!) und vapus- (nicht svairin-, vapus-!) usw.

Bekanntlich hat Sūrya Kānta Śāstrī i. J. 1953 in Delhi einen Index veröffentlicht, der — außer den entsprechenden Teilen von Macdonells Vedic Grammar — wenigstens den ersten Band Wackernagels einschließt. Leider habe ich dieses Buch nie zu Gesicht bekommen. Aus Debrunners Besprechung im 'Kratylos' I, S. 147—150 ist aber zu erkennen, daß es ein sehr zuverlässiges Werk von ganz neuartiger Form — es ist eher 'a dictionary of grammar through words' — und von erheblichem Umfang ist. Wie ich aus Dandekars 'Vedic Bibliography', Vol. II, S. 163, entnehme, ist der beabsichtigte zweite Band noch nicht erschienen, und es bleibt ungewiß, ob oder wann das geschehen wird. Jedenfalls hoffe ich, daß unser nunmehr vorliegendes Register dem Indologen eine willkommene Hilfe sein wird, um den ganzen Reichtum der Altindischen Grammatik J. Wackernagels und A. Debrunners leichter auszuschöpfen als dies bisher möglich war, und daß damit eine Lücke ausgefüllt ist, deren Bestehen man bisher immer als unangenehm empfunden hat.
